About the Co-op

Glen Oaks Village is a self-managed co-operative housing development built in 1948, shortly after WWII, as a home for many returning GI's and their families. The garden apartment community has been well maintained and is located within the boundaries of New York City. Its park-like setting makes it an ideal place to live and raise a family. The property is divided into two parts: GOV West & GOV East, which are a quarter mile apart from each other. The property consists of 2,904 apartments in 134 buildings on 110.12 acres. With lots of grass, numerous playgrounds, two lighted tennis courts, 24-hour security and many other amenities, it truly is a piece of paradise in Northeast Queens.

Glen Oaks Village is easy to get to from either the Long Island Expressway or the Grand Central Parkway. Take the Long Island Expressway to Little Neck Parkway (Exit 32 South) or Grand Central Parkway to Little Neck Parkway (Exit 24 South). We are also accessible to all public transportation. The Q46 bus connects with the E&F subway lines. The QM1A Express Bus and the LIRR Little Neck Station (Port Washington Branch) provide service to Manhattan.

The Board of Directors, along with its management staff, creates policy and operates the co-op. The Board is comprised of volunteer resident shareholders elected to three-year terms. A team of professional staff employees provides the co-op with management and maintenance services. The Management Office (718-347-2337) is located in the Arnold Krause Administration Building at 70-33 260th Street, Glen Oaks, NY 11004-1110. All inquiries should be directed there.
